The International Cessna® 170 Association

Scholarship Application

The International Cessna® 170 Association (TIC170A) is a 501(c) 7 nonprofit membership organization formed to preserve the classic 170 aircraft by sharing information.

An annual scholarship of $1,500 is possible because of the generous contributions of individual members and others. TIC170A will keep all submitted information confidential.

Scholarship recipient criteria includes:

- Applicant does not have to be a member or related to a TIC170A member.
- Applicant must be a high school graduate or graduating the year they are applying for the scholarship and be enrolled in or graduated from an education institution in an aviation-related program.
- Applicant can be a part-time or full-time student.
- Previous scholarship winners may apply in the following years, but a new application must be submitted.
- All applications will be considered on an equal basis.
- The scholarship award will be paid directly to the educational institution in U.S. dollars.
- Applications must be postmarked by April 30 each year or received by email by midnight on April 30. The application and all attachments must be submitted together.

Please type or print clearly.
